

HELENA C. TOLENTINO
Vice President, Corporate Social Responsibility

Atty. Helena C. Tolentino is the Vice President for Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR). Prior to the position, she served as Vice President for Contract Management and Corporate Services (CMCS) from 2006 to 2010. She was initially assigned as Chief of Staff to then PSALM President Nieves L. Osorio when she joined the PSALM family in 2006, a position carried over to the term of the next PSALM President.

Atty. Tolentino earned both her BA in English and Comparative Literature and Bachelor of Laws from the University of the Philippines Diliman. After her admission to the bar in 1992, she started her legal career as a legislative officer at the Senate of the Philippines. She joined the energy family in 1994 as counsel to the Philippine National Oil Company (PNOC). She then took advanced courses at Harvard University in Cambridge, Massachusetts under the Program for the Instruction of Lawyers. She thereafter spent a major part of her career as legal counsel to Filinvest Land, Inc. before returning to government service.

A certified Career Executive Service Officer (CESO), Atty. Tolentino has a wide range of trainings, although it is her experience in government contracts, procurement and governance as well as Public-Private Partnerships that has been tapped by various multilateral agencies.
