

LOURDES S. ALZONA
Vice President, Finance

Ms. Lourdes S. Alzona, a financial management executive in the electric power industry, has been in the public service for 35 years. Ms. Alzona's career in the power industry began with her stint at the National Power Corporation (NPC), which was then tasked with the management, operation, development, construction and rehabilitation of the government's power and transmission assets. For more than 20 years, she has assumed various executive positions and capacities at NPC, being at the helm of units handling budget, treasury, controllership, financial analysis and management accounting.

Ms. Alzona also served as Board Chair of the NPC Employees Multipurpose Cooperative for three (3) consecutive terms from 1998 to 2002, under which, the Cooperative achieved full compliance to the bylaws of the Cooperative Development Authority.

Ms. Alzona entered PSALM as a Consultant in 2003 prior to her appointment as manager of the Energy Market Settlement Department. She became the manager of the Controllershship Department in 2004, the year when said Department received the Most Outstanding Accounting Office Award for the Government Corporate Sector from the Association of Government Accountants of the Philippines. In July 2008, she joined the Management team as Vice President for Finance.

Ms. Alzona has contributed largely to the achievement of PSALM's twin mandate of power asset privatization and liability management. Moreover, Ms. Alzona's extensive experience on public financial management has resulted to good corporate governance and fiscal discipline in PSALM operations through strategic allocation of resources.

A Certified Public Accountant, Ms. Alzona holds a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from the Philippine Women's University and a master's degree in Business Administration from the International Academy of Management and Economics.
