

JULIUS M. LOTILLA
Vice President and General Counsel

Mr. Julius M. Lotilla is the General Counsel and Vice President of PSALM Corp. He obtained his Bachelor of Science in Commerce degree from De La Salle University and his Juris Doctor degree from Ateneo de Manila University - School of Law in 2001. He was admitted to the Philippine Bar in 2002 and the New York Bar in 2011. He obtained his Master of Laws degree, specializing in international energy and natural resources law from the Centre for Commercial Law Studies of Queen Mary, University of London in the United Kingdom in 2016 as a Chevening Scholar.

Prior to his stint in government, Mr. Lotilla has worked as Counsel of several multinational companies in the energy sector since 2005. He has extensive experience in various energy, oil & gas, infrastructure, construction and power projects, including matters concerning dispute settlement and commercial arbitration.

Mr. Lotilla was also formerly the Legal Consultant of Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative (EITI), the global standard for good governance and transparency in the mining and oil & gas sectors. He is the co-founder and trustee of Sustainable Energy and Enterprise Development for Communities (SEED4Com), a non-profit organization advocating clean energy, environmental sustainability and grassroots development for last-mile communities. He is also a Professorial Lecturer at the College of Law of De La Salle University teaching commercial law, civil law, environment & natural resources law and government contracts.