

ALFONSO G. CUSI

Secretary
Department of Energy

Energy Secretary Alfonso G. Cusi has more than four decades of leadership experience in both the private and public sectors. As a leader in the Philippine business sector, Cusi was engaged in the logistics and transportation industries where he founded and served as Chairman and President of various distribution, crewing, maritime engineering companies as well as convenience stores.

When he was Chairman of Starlite Ferries, Inc., he led the Batangas-based shipping on its modernization program with its acquisition of brand-new roll-on, roll-off (ro-ro) commercial vessels custom-built in Japan.

Recognized as a good corporate steward, he also served as Board Member of the mining firm Intex Resources Philippines, Inc., a subsidiary of the Norway-based Intex Resources ASA.

Sec. Cusi started his career in government service during the Arroyo administration, serving as General Manager of the Philippine Ports Authority (PPA) from February 2001 to July 2004. He was instrumental in the launch of the Strong Republic Nautical Highway that linked Luzon, Mindoro, Panay and Zamboanga del Norte in the country's western seaboard.

As General Manager of the Manila International Airport Authority (MIAA) from August 2004 to March 2010, he initiated the opening of the mothballed NAIA Terminal 3 in 2008.

Appointed as Director-General of the Civil Aviation Authority of the Philippines from March to December 2010, Sec. Cusi laid the groundwork for the restoration of the Category 1 status of the Philippine aviation industry.

Sec. Cusi hails from Roxas town in Oriental Mindoro and from Cebu City. He earned his Bachelor of Science degree in 1972 from La Salle College in Bacolod, his Master of Business Administration (MBA) degree in 1976 from the University of the Philippines-Cebu, and his Doctorate in Business, honoris causa, in 2008 from the Polytechnic University of the Philippines.

He was the Vice-Chairman of PDP-Laban prior to his appointment as member of the Cabinet of President Rodrigo Duterte.
